January 2015 Edition

December Meeting Notes...

We enjoyed a nice dinner at the new KRC facility in Ellettsville after everybody found their way there. Several took a tour of Ellettsville before they found it.

I hope everybody enjoyed themselves & got plenty to eat. Those who missed the event due to illness should be better by now & ready to tackle 2015.

Those who have certificates coming & were not able to attend will be getting them from Mark at the January 14th club meeting.

Thanks to VP Rick Hill for making the arrangements!

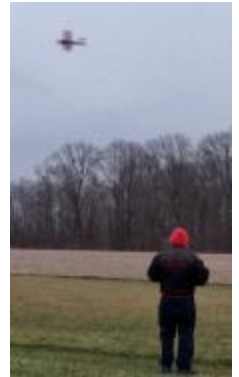

The food was good & the beer was chilled. There was one item on the buffet that I heard compared to packed sawdust but the star of the menu was the shrimp. It was excellent!

Interesting Bits...

We celebrated the "shortest Thursday" of 2014 by going to Bynum's Steakhouse in Martinsville. The only pilots I observed at Nebo getting in a cold flight before the dinner were Jeff Snodgrass & myself. Jeff took a picture of my T28 as it got dark.

Jeff & Jimmy Vanvleet took the pictures at Bynum's. The food was excellent as always & Mark suggested that we plan to do it again on the equinox Thursday (March 19th) if we can save enough money by then to pay for dinner...

There was a huge crowd at Paragon on December 19th for the last indoor flying session of 2014. Mom brought several of the kids, grandkids, & a great grandkid to try out the Proto X

President Mark Sexton passed out certificates of appreciation to many club members & some spouses for outstanding service to the club during 2014.

Tim Mellott presented his picture DVD set to music of the year in review.

Barb Hill took some pictures that should appear on the website & I took a few to put in this publication.

quadcopters she got them for Christmas. Karen brought donuts & we had a big time. We got Karen a gift certificate to Tomato Pie Pizza Joint & a bunch of us went over there after flying & filled up the party room.

I got home with an extra Vapor in my van. After several days, a few phone calls, & some emails, it made it's way back to Bruce Bundy. Bruce asked if loosing his airplane or not realizing it was gone for days was dorkable...
